

House razed in Isabela fire

Tuesday, 16 September 2014 13:39 -

A house was razed in a fire that broke out in Barangay Lanote, Isabela City, Basilan on Saturday.

According to Isabela City Fire Marshall Usman Husin, firefighters were not able to control the fire because when they arrived the house of Danilo Tores which was made of light materials was ablaze.

Investigation disclosed that a sack of charcoal the Tores family bought was on fire which was not immediately . Estimated damage was P50,000.

The Isabela city government has extended assistance to the fire victim. — Richard Falcatan