

By DAN TORIBIO JR.

The city police office has carried out a reshuffle among its key police officers.

According to City Police Office's Information Officer Chief Insp. Helen Galvez, as of yesterday August 17, 2016, the revamp took effect as part of the PNP programs.

Supt. Ariel Huesca was relieved from the Zamboanga City Police Office's Operation Branch and was assigned to the Regional Personnel Holding Account Unit.

Chief Insp. Joel Tuttuh was relieved from the Admin Branch and was designated as to take Huesca's place.

Chief Insp. Hazel Fernandez was relieved from the Criminal Records Investigation Section and was assigned as the chief of the Admin Branch and concurrent chief of Finance Section.

Chief Insp. Helen Galvez was designated as Deputy PCR branch chief and concurrent Chief PIO/Spokesperson.

Insp. Ana Santos was designated as chief of Human Rights Desk.

Insp. Mercy Karimuddin was designated as chief of Criminal Records Investigation Section, while Supt. Bonifacio Aranas Jr., was relieved as RID Deputy and was designated as Policed Station 11 chief vice Supt. Diomarie Albarico who was designated as deputy city director for administration.

City police office revamps key posts

Thursday, 18 August 2016 16:13 -

Supt. Haywien Salvado was relieved as chief of the Sta. Maria Police Station and was assigned as chief of the City Personnel Holding Account Unit.

Chief Insp. Ceaser Memoracion was designated as OIC of Sta. Maria Police Station.

From RID, PRO9, Sr. Insp. Lymel Pasquin was assigned to Police Station 11. – Dan Toribio