A woman sustained a bullet wound in the hip that landed her in the hospital. According to a police report, her husband, a militiaman, accidentally fired his gun in barangay Dulan, Upper Pasonanca on Sunday afternoon.

Police identified the victim as Mary Ann Atilano, 25, married. She was taken to the West Metro Medical Center for treatment.

Police investigation showed that around 1:36 p.m., Mary Ann's husband, Dany Boy Atilano, a member of the Citizen Armed Forces Geographical Unit (CAFGU), was cleaning his gun when he accidentally squeezed the trigger.

The gun went off hitting his wife in the hip.

During investigation, Atilano told the police that he misplaced the gun after he saw his wife bloodied. – Dan Toribio
