

Cousin hacks cousin during a drinking spree

Tuesday, 10 October 2017 14:03 -

---

A 43-year old man was hacked and seriously wounded by his cousin after their drinking spree turned out into a bloody fight in Pioquinto Drive, Mampang last Sunday night.

The hacking victim was identified as Alfredo Urucullo y Pioquinto. He was hacked by Delfin Pioquinto y Jala, Jr. a resident of the same barangay.

A police report showed that around 8 p.m., the two cousins were having a drinking spree at the house of Urucullo.

After downing some brown bottles, they figured in a heated argument due to their drunkenness and petty misunderstanding.

While in the middle of their verbal altercation, Pioquinto grabbed a bolo and hacked Urucullo in the body.

The victim sustained a hack wound in the left portion of the forehead and was rushed to the hospital.

His cousin was arrested by responding policemen and is now detained at the Tetuan Police Station. – Dan Toribio