Two men were shot dead in separate incidents in the west on Thursday night and yesterday morning.

Reynor Mariano y Rebosa, single, was shot dead by one of two men riding on a motorcycle along Purok 4, Recodo last Thursday night. He sustained multiple bullet wounds in the body and died on the spot.

A police report disclosed that Mariano was walking along Purok 4, around 8 p.m. when two men aboard a motorcycle appeared and the backrider opened fire on them. The gunmen sped away after the incident.

Witnesses said that the gunmen did not spend much time at the scene right after they surfaced. The backrider quickly pulled out a handgun and shot the victim. Ayala policemen went on hot pursuit operations against the killers, but no positive development yet on the case.

In the second incident, Badjing Cedeno, 40, was shot dead in Maasin around 6:45 a.m. yesterday. He sustained gunshot wounds in the right should and right arm. It was learned that the assailant was aboard a passenger jeepney that sped west. — Dan Toribio Jr.
