

Burglars broke into two business establishments and carted away assorted items and money in two separate incidents along Nuñez Extension and San Jose Gusu, the other day.

Around 12:20 a.m., Tuesday, robbers broke into the Thai Spa at NC building, Nuñez Extension and took a set of sound system, electric fan, electric airpot, wireless phone, orbit air freshener, sofa cover, bath robe, lampshade, pliers, two wall clocks, two malong, two bed covers and two portable emergency lights, all estimated to be worth P55,000.

Initial investigation disclosed that the robbers entered the spa joint through an emergency exit where there was a sliding window which they used as their entry and exit point.

The following day, around 7:30 a.m. another robbery was discovered at Cecil's Pharmacy located along San Jose Gusu.

Police said the robbers got away with several valuables and undetermined amount of money.

Initial investigation disclosed that the robbers entered the drug and grocery store by removing screws from G.I sheets and destroying the wooden ceiling. They scooped cash from the cashier booth and ransacked several commodities.

Police were still investigating both cases. — Dan Toribio Jr.
