A resident of Licombo was shot to death by a gunman last Thursday afternoon.

Slain was Rodelio Jamerlan y Dagunano.

Police said that Jamerlan was tending the store of his brother when a gunman appeared and shot him around 4 p.m.

Jamerlan was rushed to the Vitali Lying-in Clinic where he was declared dead on arrival.

The gunman escaped.

Investigators recovered a live bullet, a slug and a spent shell of .45 caliber pistol at the crime scene.

Police were still trying to determine the identity of the killer. — Dan Toribio Jr.
